When commissioning us to prepare a T1 transit procedure, please ensure that the following information is provided completely and in due time before the planned loading:

	Required Information

All resulting costs, including possible presentation at the responsible customs office, will be charged according to actual expenses incurred. It is the responsibility of the customer to properly present the VBD at the designated destination customs office upon receipt.

Before removing the official seal, the consignee/customer must verify the VBD for completeness, accuracy, and expiry of deadlines.

If the data provided for the preparation of the accompanying transit documents is incorrect or if the VBD enters into a search and reminder procedure, we will — in close coordination with the customer — clarify any discrepancies with the responsible main customs office. A one-time fee of 210,00 € per case will be charged for this service.

Further restrictions and prohibitions can be found in the respective hinterland conditions of the involved terminals.

General Notes:

- Dangerous goods transports are generally accepted subject to technical and operational feasibility on rail and road.
- The transport of dangerous goods in limited quantities (LQ) is permitted in combined transport, provided that all requirements under ADR (road), RID (rail), and IMDG-Code (sea transport) are met. The respective fees and conditions can be found under the section "Dangerous Goods Storage" in the Inland Terminal Conditions of the respective terminal.

1.30 Transport of Waste Requiring Approval

Our rail operator as well as the contracted trucking company will check the feasibility of the transport in advance based on the specified AVV number (German Waste Catalogue Ordinance).

Any applicable surcharges for this service can be found under the section "Positioning" in the Inland Terminal Conditions of the involved terminals.

1.31 Transport with Overheight and Overwidth

Open Top Containers and Flat Racks may only be transported "in gauge." Any form of overheight or overwidth is excluded.

IGS Intermodal also reserves the right to immediately introduce corresponding ancillary charges as a result of new legislation or measures at federal or state level.

IGS Intermodal reserves the option to make adjustments during the year or to revoke validity.

1.34 Legal Basis of Our Terms and Conditions

Note:

Please pay particular attention to clause 23 of the ADSp, which deviates from the statutory provision in § 431 German Commercial Code (HGB) regarding the maximum liability for cargo damage:

- For multimodal transport including sea carriage and an unknown damage location, liability is limited to 2 SDR/kg.
- The customary liability limitation of 8.33 SDR/kg is additionally limited to:
 - EUR 1.25 million per damage claim,
 - EUR 2.5 million per damage event,
 - in both cases, however, at least 2 SDR/kg.

Please carefully review these provisions, as deviating statutory regulations do not apply.

1.35 Validity

The present regulations regarding the scope of application as well as our hinterland conditions are valid until and including June 30, 2026. Any services or changes to conditions beyond this date will be announced in an updated version.
